UK NATIONS + REGIONS ITL1

FDI per job

The UK's median of total inward foreign direct investment in 2021 was £31,128 per job. It is estimated as total inward FDI position divided by the total number of jobs in the economy.

Only London (536%) and South East (248%) significantly exceed this level. North West (115%) and West Midlands (110%) also benefit from a higher level of FDI per job, while levels in South West, Yorkshire & The Humber and Wales were equal to the median value. FDI per job in all other ITL1 regions were lower than the median value.
